LIVELY OPENING SCENES AT REPUBLICAN CONVENTION

Wild Enthusiasm Over Roosevelt's Name--Precautions Against Stampede--Hawaiians Parade Under California's Ensign

(Associated Press Cable to The Star.)

CHICAGO, June 16.—The Republican National Convention was called to order this afternoon at eight minutes after noon.

Julius C. Burrows, Senator from Michigan, was by acclamation seated as temporary chairman of the Convention.

Senator Burrows, thanking the Convention for the honor conferred upon him, reviewing the political situation and touching on the prospects, spoke for one hour and nine minutes.

Whenever in his address the temporary chairman mentioned the name of President Roosevelt there was the wildest outburst of applause.

At the mention of the name of Secretary of War William H. Taft the demonstration was short-lived.

Thus far the business of the Convention has been confined to organization which was completed at 2:03 o'clock this afternoon, at which time adjournment was taken until noon tomorrow.

Committees will meet this afternoon and tonight.

The leaders are prepared to head off a stampede for Roosevelt.

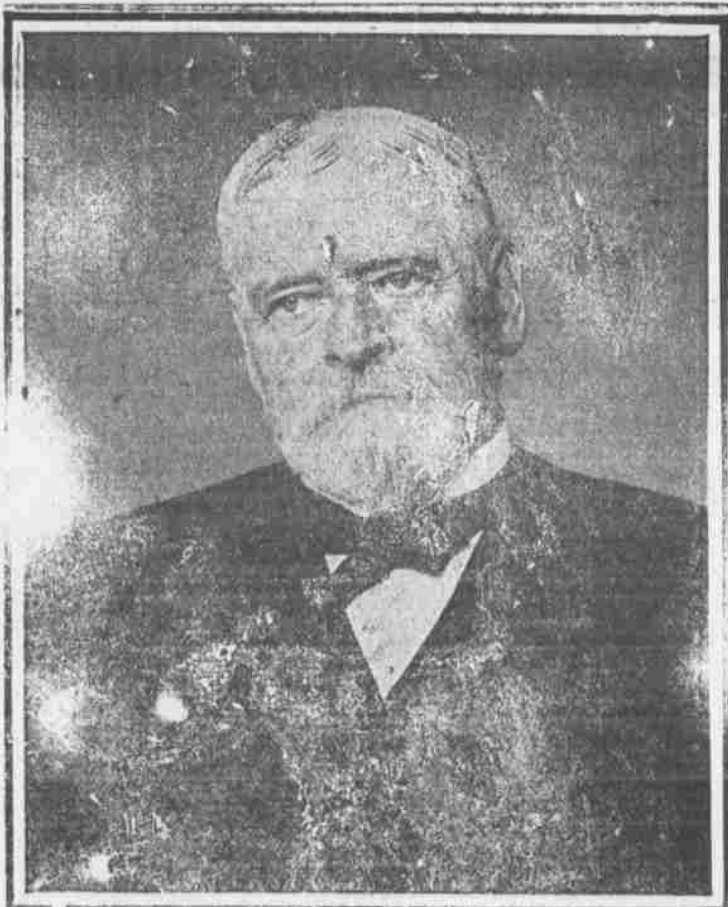

Today the Californians headed a unique parade through the streets of the city.

In line were the Delegates from Nevada, Idaho and Hawaii.

They marched from the Auditorium to the Coliseum.

At the head of the procession was borne the finest banner of the whole Convention, carried by the Californians.

TOKIO, June 16.—Fifty fishing boats have been wrecked off Kagoshima and 350 fishermen have been drowned.

WILLIAM H. TAFT

Julius C. Burrows, Senator from Michigan, has been selected for what is in many respects the most important position, namely, that of temporary chairman of the Convention.

SPORTS PROGRAM MUST BE CHANGED

LETTER FROM THE FLEET SHOWS THAT THE SAILORS CANNOT ENTER IN CERTAIN LINES—WILL NOT PLAY BAIL UNDER PAID ADMISSION—NO BOAT RACING—THEY ARE READY FOR BOXING AND WRESTLING.

Office of The Commander-in-Chief United States Atlantic Fleet.
U. S. S. Connecticut, Flagship, San Francisco, California, June 3rd, 1908.

Sir:—The Chief of Staff has handed me your favor of May 22nd, 1908, and in reply thereto I regret to have to inform you that it will be impossible for us to enter in all of the proposed events.

2. It is impracticable for our athletic teams to go ashore in the forenoon. We can furnish two baseball teams to play every afternoon, games to be on our regular fleet schedule, provided the grounds are available, but no admission is to be charged to see the sailors play.

3. We would like to have one game with the local professional team, any afternoon that it is convenient for them, if they care to play us.

4. We will enter men in the field events. Our boxing tournament was finished April 25th, but our men will box and wrestle with local champions if prizes and weights can be arranged.

5. We cannot play football at Honolulu. We will gladly enter any events not mentioned, if we have time between coaling the ships.

6. We would like to be excused from boat racing as the men have been in constant training for several months and need a rest.

7. Money prizes would probably be preferable to cups or medals for individual prizes as the men accumulated more medals than they can store, since our arrival on the West Coast. Where a ship or a team wins a prize, some trophy would, of course, be more appropriate. It will be dif-

man. The selection of Senator Burrows caused much surprise in political circles, inasmuch as Senator Beveridge of Indiana, who had the support of President Roosevelt for the place, was regarded as a probable winner. Senator Burrows, who will make the "keynote" speech of the convention and campaign, is a native of Pennsylvania and is now 71 years of age. He is a lawyer by profession and was an officer in the Union Army. He has been a member of the United States Senate since 1895, prior to which time he had served several terms as a representative in Congress.

8. Thanking you for your kindness in doing so much for the men, and hoping to be of assistance in arranging details when we arrive at Honolulu, I remain,

Very sincerely yours, (Signed) D. A. WEAVER, Lieutenant, U. S. Navy, Fleet Athletic Officer.

Mr. Samuel L. Johnson, Chairman
Sub-Committee on Sports, Honolulu, Hawaii.

From the tenor of the foregoing letter, presented at the fleet executive committee today by Chairman Atkinson of the sports committee, it will be gathered that the program of sports must be largely remodeled. Private letters lately received in Honolulu from officers of the fleet indicate that sports are not all of which the navy men have become tired. A lieutenant well-known here writes that nothing but official orders will now secure attendance at dancing parties.

The executive committee met today as usual, those present being G. R.
Carter, J. P. Cooke, H. P. Wood, Alonzo Gartley, J. A. McCandless, W. F.
Dillingham, L. T. Peck, Alexander Young, F. E. Richardson, A. L. C. Atkinson and Marston Campbell.

Several letters besides the one above were received, which were read and ordered placed on file.

L. S. Conness, for the "Man of the Hour" company, sent word by letter that the popular play would be presented three evenings during fleet week, and asked that it be placed on the program.

T. B. Lyons of the Maui committee sent in a list of his sub-committees.

Editor Shuba wrote that so far no money had been collected from the Japanese residents, and asked that it be attended to at once.

A letter from Manager Baileytine of the Rapid Transit Co. relative to transportation was read and referred to the transportation committee.

On motion by Cooke seconded by McCandless, the transportation committee was asked to see the R. T. Co. again about free transportation for the men in uniform.

J. P. Cooke reported that Dr. Scudder of Central Union church had stated that the Sunday school room would be turned into a reading and writing room if requested. The matter was referred to the committee at large.

Superintendent of Public Works Campbell stated that he would provide proper landing stages if he could secure an appropriation of $500. The money was unanimously voted.

Alexander Young reported progress in the work going on in his three hotels for the reception of the fleet.

Adjournment was taken until onefifty tomorrow.

DOYLE IN CASE

WILL STEP ASIDE AS INTER-PRETER AND AID PROSECUTION IN MURDER TRIAL.

The trial of Territory vs. Maids and Mamura, charged with murder in the first degree, will commence before Judge Robinson tomorrow morning.
The case will be the most important which has come before the criminal court since the new Attorney General has been in office. It is an old affair, which has been out of sight for over a year since the indictment was brought in.

An interesting phase of the case is that Chester A. Doyle, formerly criminologist when E. C. Peters was Attorney General, has been called into the case at the request of Attorney General Hemenway. He was in the department at the time that the murder was committed and is in this way disqualified from acting as interpreter and with his assistance it is believed that the case for the prosecution will be strengthened.

The following letter has been received by Judge De Bolt from the Attorney General in regard to the matter: Honolulu, T. H., June 15th, 1908.
Honorable J. T. De Bolt, First Judge, First Circuit Court, Honolulu, T.
H.

Dear Sir:—It would be of great service to this Department if you would permit Mr. Chester A. Doyle, the present Japanese Interpreter in the First Circuit Court, to assist us during the trial of the case of Territory vs. Maids and Mamura in the first degree. Mr.
Doyle was connected with the Department at the time the alleged crime was committed, and had a great deal to do with the preliminary preparation of the case. He therefore cannot act as interpreter, and arrangements have been understand, been made to secure Mr.
Shuba as an interpreter during the trial. You can readily see that the knowledge Mr. Doyle has will be of great value and assistance to the prosecuting officers.

I therefore would request your consent to Mr. Doyle's assisting the prosecution in the presentation of this case.
Very truly yours,
C. R. HEMENWAY,
Attorney General.

NAVY DANCE AT THE YOUNG HOTEL

This evening will be the commencement of a number of entertainments at the Young and Moana hotels, which will be given in honor of the officers of the battleships Alabama and Maine. A naval hop will be given at the Young Hotel to which all are cordially invited. Secretary Jas. R. Garfield was a schoolmate of Fred Church's and they will have many old times to talk over. Church has taken charge of the entertainment and advertising for the two big hotels, and there will be something doing every night that the squadron is in port.
Manager Hertsche is to be highly commended upon his public spirit in his efforts to give the men of the Navy a good time, and the public should show appreciation by their patronage.

STOWAWAYS PUT ASHORE

(By Special Wireless to The Star.) Off Koko Head, June 16, 12:08 p. m.—A search of the Hilonian for stowaways, said to have boarded the vessel just before she left the Matson wharf, has resulted in three being found in hiding. Captain Johnson ordered away a boat and sent them ashore, the would-be passengers being landed on the beach at Koko Head. The Hilonian was stopped soon after 11 o'clock and has just resumed her voyage.

Bespeaks Fair Deal For Hawaii

HEAD OF INTERIOR DEPARTMENT MAKING A FIGHT TO PLACE HA-WAI ON SAME PLANE AS MAINLAND TERRITORIES FOR FED-ERAL APPROPRIATIONS—MR. GARFIELD RECEIVED BY LARGE PARTY OF OFFICIALS IN GOVERNOR'S OFFICE.

"It is my hope, and I am urging it strongly, that Hawaii shall be placed on exactly the same footing as the territories on the mainland. This has been decided against by the Comptroller of the Treasury, but not by the Department of Justice, and the matter is being taken up again at present with the Comptroller and also with the Attorney General.

"If this should be done it will mean that Hawaii will receive the same benefits from the irrigation act, as the states and territories on the mainland, and will be able to obtain money from the general appropriations which are made for forestry, soil and hydrographic purposes."

This statement was made this morning by Secretary of the Interior Garfield in an interview given in the office of Governor Frear. The Secretary is a young man and very much on what has become known as the Roosevelt style. He is tall with a fine physique, strong featured throughout, with a rather prominent nose and chin.
Sharp eyes which look one in the eye as he speaks show the earnestness of the man and a full mouth with teeth showing prominently make up a pleasing face. Affable is hardly the right term to describe his manner, but a smile is continually in evidence and gives the face an appearance of quick humor.

On reaching the Executive building, accompanied by Governor Frear and Secretary Mott-Smith, the Secretary entered the robin's egg blue chamber where the following gentlemen were waiting to meet him: Chief Justice Hartwell, Justices Wilder and Ballou, Judges Dole, Robinson, Lindsay and Mahalan, Sheriff Iaukea, High Sheriff Henry, U. S. District Attorney Breckons, Dr. Cofer, Supt. Marston Campbell, Supt. W. H. Babbitt, Treas. A. J.
Campbell, H. E. Cooper, Auditor Fisher, Surveyor Wall, Attorney General Hemenway, J. D. Tucker, Charles Husface, Jr., and Adjutant General Jones.
All were introduced by name, the Secretary greeting Judge Dole, Treasurer Campbell, Dr. Cofer and others whom he had met before with particular cordiality.

A short chat followed in which the various heads of the departments talked to the Secretary on their different lines and then the work of preparing a program for the Secretary's trips was started on. Judge Ballou and Governor Frear went over the plans which had been mapped out for the stay on this island and shortly afterward ex-Governor G. R. Carter and ex-Secretary A. L. C. Atkinson appeared.

A few minutes after this Secretary Garfield signified his willingness to meet the newspaper men. After a pleasant greeting he said:

"I have come down here on a trip of investigation and that I may acquaint myself with the conditions in this Territory as much as possible. Until the

THERPSICHOEAN GAETIES AT SEASIDE

Tonight and every night while the battleships are in port, there will be a dance at the Seaside Hotel. Manager Stout has engaged a Hawaiian Sextette and Hawaiian melodies and the latest dance music will add to the enjoyment.

Bright moonlight, the never ceasing roar of the surf, the bright glow of hundreds of colored incandescent lights and a perfect dancing floor will make the Seaside an ideal pleasure resort.
Even if you don't dance you will enjoy the gay spectacle.
